

PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PATIENT RIGHTS

Decision Making

You or your representative(s) have the right to:

- Be informed before care is given or discontinued whenever possible.
- Receive accurate and current information regarding your health status in terms you can understand, allowing you to make informed decisions.
- Participate in planning for your treatment, care and discharge recommendations. Surrogate whom you may select can represent you if you cannot make your own decisions according to state law.
- Receive an explanation of proposed procedure or treatment, including risks, serious side effects and treatment alternatives, including request for second opinion or specific treatment.
- Participate in managing your pain effectively.
- Refuse or discontinue a treatment to the extent permitted by law and to be informed of the consequences of such refusal.
- Receive emergency care or transfer to higher level of care (Hospital) should this be necessary, providing full explanation of the need based on your medical condition & without needing to wait for authorization and without any financial penalty.
- Have persons of your choice promptly notified of hospital admission.
- Write a Living Will, Medical Power of Attorney, and/or a CPR Directive.
- Accept, refuse or withdraw from clinical research.
- Choose or change your healthcare provider.

Quality of Care

You have the right to:

- Respectful treatment, which recognizes and maintains your dignity and personal values without any discrimination due to race, religion, age, sex or other personal values.
- Accurate information about facility where services are received, and credentials of health care personnel involved in your care.
- Interpreters and/or special equipment to assist language needs.
- Information about continuing healthcare requirements following discharge, including how to access care after hours.

Confidentiality and privacy

You have the right to:

- Personal privacy and care in a safe setting free from abuse, harassment, discrimination or reprisal.
- Personal information being shared only with those who are involved in your care.
- Confidentiality of your medical and billing records.
- Notification of breach of unsecured personal health information.

Grievance Process

You or your representative has the right to:

- Fair, fast, and objective review of any complaint you have against your health plan, physician or healthcare personnel without fear of reprisal.
- Submit a formal complaint either verbally or in writing as shown below. You will receive a written notice of decision within 15 business days from when the complaint was made known.
